DEMAND FOR FREE SPEECH MADE AT O. S. U.

153 Faculty Members Protest Against Stand of School Heads.

PETITION MADE PUBLIC

Action Is Outgrowth of Ouster Move Against Professor Miller.

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., June 11—As an outgrowth of the dismissal of Prof.
Herbert A. Miller, internationally known sociologist, 153 members of the Ohio State University faculty made public today a protest against the stand taken by the board of trustees and President George W.
Rightmire on the question of academic free speech.

The protests contained a joint statement by full professors, assistants and instructors. It condemned the board for "violating the essentials of freedom of academic discussion."

Object to Censorship

The teachers signed their names to a statement which read:

"Affirming their loyalty to the fundamental educational principles of the great institution they serve, they now solemnly assert that no educational principle is so fundamental as that which assures expression of thought and opinion free from the censorship of the board of trustees."

The reason which had been assigned for Prof. Miller's dismissal was that parents had complained about his teachings on the subject of race and race relations, on which he is considered an authority.

"There can be no university true to its name where freedom of thought and speech do not prevail," said a statement issued by the full professors. "The members of the university faculty whose names are hereto appended claim the right to think for themselves on educational and social questions, and to express their thoughts as they deem wise."

Deplore Stand of Board

The younger members of the faculty, in their petition said they "deplore the attitude" of the board of trustees and "protest against the apparent departure from the traditional university policy in regard to academic freedom."

MAYOR JOINS IN RACE FOR SECOND TERM

Files Declaration for Candidacy with Election Board;
To Have Opposition.

DRAKE SEEKS NOMINATION

Two in Each Party After Post: Deadline for Filing
June 12.

Mayor L. Don Jones definitely announced he is a candidate for reelection by filing his declaration of candidacy with C. G. Ritzler, clerk of the board of elections late Friday.

Mayor Jones' hat was the third to drop in the mayoralty ring, and the first Democratic candidate for mayor to take the field.
He was followed closely, however, by that of William D. Drake of Fairground street, who this morning filed his declaration as Democratic candidate for mayor.

The other two candidates who filed previously are W. C. Phillips and R. E. Prettyman, both Republicans.

Up to this time Mayor Jones has been silent about his plans, and would not state whether he would ask for a second term.

Both he and Drake were mentioned prominently as prospective Democratic candidates in earlier pre-campaign talk.

The deadline for filing declarations is June 12, at 6:30 p. m.

Mayor Jones' declaration of candidacy bore the names of Dr. C. J.
Altmaier, chairman of the Democratic executive committee, Clauence M. Rowe, A. W. Kette, R. E.
Grubaugh, and Mrs. J. B. Hoagland.

With the deadline for candidates to file only a few days away, a last minute rush from both parties is expected. Only four candidates besides the four seeking nomination as candidates for mayor, have filed. They are J. Luther Lander, Republican candidate for reelection as city auditor, Irven Pretty-man and M. W. Kline, Democratic candidates for reelection to city council, and Henry Hoch of 230 Edwards street, Democratic candidate for second ward councilman.

BOY SLAYER'S CASE PROBLEM FOR COURT

Chicago School Youth Calmly Reenacts Killing of Policeman.

By The Associated Press. CHICAGO, June 1.—The problem of what to do with a 15-year-old high school boy who slew a policeman and then reenacted the killing, apparently without emotion, confronted authorities today.

Varner Corry, whose mother, Mrs. Adeline Jones Corry, has been an art teacher in Chicago public schools for 20 years, was the boy.

Patrolman Edward Smith was his victim. He shot Smith to death Saturday when the policeman ordered him, his brother Carl, 13, and Schuyler Pearson, 15, from the swimming pool of the John Marshall High school.

Young Corry, who but recently got his first pair of long trousers, led officers to the swimming pool yesterday to reenact for them the killing. He was accompanied by his youthful companions.

The youth told the policeman he had broken into the John Marshall school on previous occasions to swim or loot, and confessed he had stolen the pistol from a desk in the school's gymnasium.

By The Associated Press. CLEVELAND, June 1.—Reese B. Jones, former president of the First State bank of Newton Falls, O., was sentenced to seven years in prison today when he pleaded guilty in federal court to three indictments charging misapplication of the bank's funds and with making a false statement of the bank's condition.

The resignation and its acceptance was read yesterday morning by the secretary of the board, John Hoffman. Rev. Weckmueller tendered his resignation at a meeting of the consistory Wednesday night.

In the eight years Rev. Weckmueller has been here, the new Reformed church edifice has been built. It was erected in 1927, four years after he came here.

William Furstenberger, presiding officer of the board, has appointed Erle Houser, W. E. Bartholomew and John Hoffman as a pulp supply committee to arrange for a pastor after Rev. Weckmueller's resignation becomes effective.

PHONE RATE CASE IS SET FOR JUNE 15

Continuance Decided Upon by Judge Wickham, Named Special Master.

By United Press. COLUMBUS, O., June 1.—Federal Judge Benson W. Hough advised the United Press today that a hearing in connection with the suspended increased rate case of the Ohio Associated Telephone company of Marion, had been continued to June 15.

The hearing, which formerly had been scheduled for today, was to have been held before Judge E. M. Wickham of Delaware, who was appointed as a special master to review the case by a three judge federal court in Cincinnati.

Previously the court had upheld a temporary injunction enjoining a refund of alleged excessive rates for telephone service collected from subscribers in Marion, and dissolved another which suspended billing of telephone rates as prescribed by the public utilities commission.

It is expected that at the June 15 hearing Judge Wickham will entertain oral arguments and will hear testimony in the matter of rates.

Places Graft Share of Potter at $1,000

By The Associated Press. COLUMBUS, O., June 1.—Testimony that William E. Potter, slain Cleveland councilman, got $1,000 out of the $23,000 graft in the Cleveland city playground scandal, was given to the Ohio clemency board by Liston G. Schooley, Jr., penitentiary convict, according to Frank A. Reighard, member of the board.

Young Schooley, who with his father, was convicted of participation in the playground graft deal, has an application for parole pending before the board. His case was up for hearing last Friday. The elder Schooley, also a former Cleveland councilman, has a longer term to serve.

The parole board is expected to take some action in young Schooley's case within a week.

POISON DEATH LIST UP TO 19

Chicago Authorities Branch Out in Investigating Case of Mrs. Summers.

By The Associated Press. CHICAGO, June 1.—The deaths of the five known husbands of Mrs. Margaret Summers, as well as those of 14 other persons were under investigation today, Coroner Herman N. Bundesen said, in connection with poison murder charges already made against the woman.

The inquiry, the coroner said, was carried back over a period of 25 years as a result of information concerning Stanley Jones and James Lynch, two of her husbands, whose deaths antedated those of three others. Investigators were trying to learn whether Mrs. Summers insured these men as she did the others.

James Fairfax, Stanley Korzen and Thomas Summers were the husbands who followed Jones and Lynch in death.

Mrs. Summers is charged with murder by poison in connection with the deaths of Summers, Thomas Meyers, a nephew; Thomas Lanagan, 46, and William Reenan, 72. Lanagan and Reenan were roomers of Mrs. Summers. She held insurance policies on them totalling more than $8,500.

All of the 19 persons whose deaths were being investigated were relatives or roomers of the woman.

Investigators confiscated Mrs. Summers' Bible, in which, they said, each death was entered.

FALL APPEAL LOST IN SUPREME COURT

Former Cabinet Officer Faces Immediate Imprisonment on Bribery Charge.

By The Associated Press. WASHINGTON, June 1.—The supreme court today refused to review the conviction of Albert B. Fall on charges of accepting a bribe in connection with the naval oil reserve leases as secretary of the interior.

Under his action of the court, Fall must report at once for commitment under his sentence of one year in the penitentiary and payment of a fine of $100,000.

The former cabinet official was convicted in October, 1929, of having accepted a $100,000 bribe from Edward I. Doheny. The money was alleged to have been brought to Washington by Doheny's son in the famous "little black bag."

The government contended the money was given to influence Fall in leasing the Elk Hills naval oil reserve in California to the Pan American Petroleum company, which Doheny represented.

Fall signed the sum was a loan from one old friend to another.

WOMAN ON TRIAL

Alleged Paramour of Tilby Smith Starts Fight for Life.

By The Associated Press. JEFFERSON, O., June 1.—Mrs. Maude Lowther, 28-year-old housemaid who is alleged to have joined in the slaying of Mrs. Clara Smith, 27, so that she might pursue an affair with the victim's husband, was called to stand trial for her life today.

Tilby Smith, 27, husband of the slain woman, is under sentence of death in the electric chair Aug. 17, and the state will attempt to gain a like penalty for Mrs. Lowther.

Mrs. Lowther is alleged to have hidden in ambush at an appointed spot on a lonely road where Smith drove his wife and their two small children. As Mrs. Smith sat holding one of the children, Mrs. Lowther fired, the state contends.

GARY MURDER CASE REOPENED BY JUDGE

Decides To Hear Arguments on New Sentence for Kirkland.

By The Associated Press. VALPARAISO, Ind., June 1.—Judge Grant Crumpacker, who criticized for the one to ten year sentence he pronounced on Virgil Kirkland for the slaying of Arlene Graves, today ordered the Gary youth returned here for Pendleton reformatory and said he would hear arguments for a new sentence.

The court acted on its own initiative and said it would set aside the sentence of last Wednesday after a second jury had convicted Kirkland in the girl's death. The verdict was guilty of assault and battery with intent to rape.

Judge Crumpacker said he still contended the law provided for a one to ten year term in the case of a minor not previously convicted of a felony despite the opinion of Attorney General James H. Ogden that it should have been five to 21 years.

His action to bring back Kirkland anticipated that of Prosecutor Robert Estill of Lake county, in charge of the Kirkland prosecution, who immediately afterward moved for a rehearing on the sentence. Kirkland was to be brought here today and arguments heard tomorrow morning.

Estill said he was investigating Kirkland's age, among other things connected with the case. The boy's mother, Mrs. Elmer Kirkland, has sworn he was under 21. He was sentenced under the juvenile act.

GRENADE KILLS FOUR

KACHAU, Czechoslovakia, June 1.—Four children were killed and 15 seriously injured here today when a hand grenade they dug up exploded. It was believed that the grenade might have been a "dud" thrown during the World war and buried all the years since.

formed as to when the playground would be permitted to reopen and he had been obliged to discharge 25 playground directors.

Tenseness of the situation, prior to today's negotiations was aggravated by the explosion of four bombs near Catholic institutions in Bologna Saturday night. Though no damage was done a carabinieri brigadier was killed and two persons were injured. Thirty persons were arrested, presumably Fascist youths opposed to the church.

The pontiff said in an address to a group of ecclesiastics in Vatican City yesterday he would invoke the Lateran treaty and contact in protesting the closing of the Catholic clubs by H. Duce.

The events of the last few days he said, were "the first manifesta-

TO CUT BUDGETS OF WELFARE AGENCIES

Plans To Be Outlined After Compilation of Audit of Subscriptions.

Final audit of subscriptions to the 1931 Community Fund drive will not be completed for at least another two days, fund leaders said this morning. When the exact amount subscribed has been learned, programs of the nine agencies in the fund will be revamped to make allowance for the estimated shortage of $19,297 in this year's drive.

Community Fund headquarters today were transferred from the Citizens' Building & Loan Co. building to the second floor of the Y. M. C. A. building, adjacent to rooms now occupied by the American Red Cross, which last week moved from the fourth floor of the Chier-Phillips Co. building.

It was estimated Friday at the final report luncheon that total subscriptions in the drive would amount to $54,000. The objective was $73,297.

Looking Back

(Will Rogers Special)

SANTA MONICA, Calif., June 1.—President Hoover made a mighty fine and very sincere speech Saturday at Valley Forge. He found somebody that was worse off than we are but he had to go back 150 years in history to do it.

He claims that George Washington was in just about as bad shape with his army then as Mellon is with his deficit now.

But George only had to worry about getting through the winter. We got to worry about getting through the summer, then the winter, then another summer before the Democrats can possibly do anything for us.

sought through reduction in local taxes. He suggested states should adopt a policy of limiting the maximum tax levy or maximum per capita expenditure of local units. Too much state control, he said, was responsible in some instances for high local taxes. He expressed the belief that within prescribed limitations, the local unit should be permitted to work out its own salvation.

With Governors Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York and Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, both of whom are prominently mentioned as Democratic presidential candidates, in attendance, the political aspects of the conclave loomed larger than the official business.

Governor Roosevelt will address the conference on land utilization. The Maryland chief executive will preside at one of the round table sessions. Asked whether problems of prohibition or unemployment would creep into the conference, Governor Ritchie said he thought it would be a good thing if the governors would consider "these subjects of vital importance to the people."

TEX STILL HOPES FOR PERMISSION TO LAND

New York Night Club Hostess Refused Permission To Enter France.

By The Associated Press. HAVRE, France, June 1.—Texas Guinan does not "choose to run" until the last hope waxes that she and her night club "paid" can land in France.

She was awaiting today an answer from the minister of the interior to her appeal from the government's decision barring her troupe from appearing in a Paris cabaret and ordering them deported Wednesday on the liner Paris.

"Well, in the words of Coolidge: 'I do not choose to run,'" she said. "I will not accept this as final until I receive word from my agents in Paris as I have appealed to the minister of the interior to consider my case."

The party was under strict surveillance in the emigrant hotel in which they have been quartered since they arrived. The girls have been refused permission to resume their jaunts about the city and a scheduled trip to church was cancelled yesterday.

Amplifying the reasons for the government's action, an official of the immigration bureau said he had heard of parties conducted aboard ship by la Guinan and that he did not think "her type of amusement is our type."

The Stars Say—

For Tuesday, June 2

THE planetary positions for this day are found to be in conflicting force. While new projects, transactions, secret schemes and measures of diplomacy or intrigue may flourish, yet the general trend of events is for dissension, unhappiness, personal anxiety and complications. Caution with papers, agreements and letters is admonished.

Those whose birthday it may find that they will win against many adverse and hostile forces during the year by adhering to tact, diplomacy and strategy. In personal affairs guard against jealousy and enmity as well as slander. A child born on this day may have some unique or unusual talents, being gifted in ways of stratagem and diplomacy which may bring it position where spite and a contentious spirit would fail.

ENGINEER WILL TALK

KENTON, June 1. J. A. Stocker of Columbus, chief engineer of the Ohio Central lines of the N. Y. C. system will be the principal speaker at the chamber of commerce luncheon here Tuesday.

So soon as a man thinks it is an outrage that he has to work for a living, let him have a look in the making.

Mr. Car Owner

Here is what Race Drivers with Life and Victory at Stake have decided about Tires

FOR twenty-one years the Indianapolis two and a half mile circular brick track, surrounded by a concrete wall to keep the cars from dashing off, has been the crucible where at white heat automobiles and tires have been tested. Thousands of men have risked and some have sacrificed, their lives, and manufacturers have spent millions of dollars to the end of making better automobiles and better tires.

Louis Schneider and mechanic Saturday won this race in a heavy eight-cylinder car. He made an average of 96.629 miles per hour on the straightaways and in passing cars he touched 140 miles and better. He drove on 6.00-20 Firestone High Speed Tires with racing treads. He had no tire trouble.

He used Firestone Tires because Firestone experts and engineers have through twenty-one years taken this race as a challenge to tire making. From this race they have developed these vital improvements which have given to Firestone Tires the world leadership in safety, mileage and endurance.

- 1. Gum-Dipping. Tires had to be stronger and able to stand the heat of a hot red-brick track at high speed. Firestone met this by developing and perfecting the dipping of cords through a rubber solution to insulate each fiber of every cord to overcome heat and give the cord greater strength—and 58% greater flexibility. This is the Patented Gum-Dipping Process used in the making of every Firestone Tire.
- 2. The Balloon Tire was developed by Firestone to permit greater speed with comfort and safety by increasing road grip and absorbing shocks. It was made possible by the added strength and flexibility given by Gum-Dipping. In the 1925 race, some of the drivers tried the then new Firestone Balloons. The others stuck to high-pressure tires. Peter de Paolo on Firestone Balloons made a world's record. All the prize winners came in on Firestone Balloons—Now the balloon tire is everywhere the standard.
- 3. Double Cord Breaker. The higher-powered cars and the step-up in speed demanded still more tire toughness. At one hundred miles an hour, the circumference of a tire increases by more than 10%, and this, added to the centrifugal force, tends to throw off the tire treads. Firestone met this by developing the Patented Double Cord Breaker which gives a 56% stronger bond between the tread and the tire body and also gives a 26% greater protection against punctures and blowouts.

These are some of the great lessons that Firestone has learned on this racing track. And so the men whose lives and fortunes depend on knowing tires always buy Firestone Patented Gum-Dipped Double Cord Breaker High-Speed Tires.

There were 72 entries. Of these, 40 survived the elimination trials—and every one of them was on Firestone Tires. And every tire was bought and paid for.

We give you the benefit of all the lessons Firestone has learned from these races. You can get from us all the strength and safety in tires that the racing drivers buy.

The Gold Standard of Tire Values

World's Records

- Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires hold all world's records on road and track for safety, mileage, speed and endurance.
- for twelve consecutive years they have won the 500-mile Indianapolis Endurance Race.
- were on the winning cars in the Pike's Peak Race where a slip meant death.
- were on the C.M.C. Truck, carrying a two-ton load, that hung up the coast-to-coast endurance record.
- were on the Studebaker car which on a board track in Atlantic City in 1933 went 30,000 miles in 26, 326 minutes.
- on 125 buses of the Washington Electric & Railway Company, ran 3,674,366 bus miles during 1930 with only 18 tire delays.
- on 150 trucks of the Safeway Stores, Inc., ran 1,500,000 miles in one year without one single hour of delay on the road.

Take advantage of our liberal trade-in plan. Avoid the risk of blow-out, accident or delay. Prices on these World's Record Tires are the lowest in the nation.

A Story of Humorous Boyhood Adventure
By JUDD MORTIMER LEWIS

DAY before yesterday was Sunday and yesterday was Sunday, but there wouldn't have been any school on those days anyhow so they were not the beginnings of our vacation.

Yesterday I got out of bed singing, "This is the way I long have sought and mourned because I found it not," and my father hollered he didn't know this was Sunday, and I hollered back that it was a Sunday song I was singing so then he went back to bed and I closed up my face and let Jubilee down by the rope in his teeth and put on my short breeches and went down and got my milk-pail, and went out to milk the dummied brutes, and then I strained the milk and fed my face and found out that my mother had four big boxes of big strawberries for shortcake for dinner, and that sort of made my lip quiver. My mother said at breakfast that she never saw such big berries.

My grandfather said that probably it was Texas berries she had got hold of. He said that when Texas berries came and the right kind of weather a fella has to make and squeeze one a lot to get it into a pint box. He said they got so big that the grocers had to cross the strawberries with wafermelons so as to make them grow smaller, but even now they have to slice their strawberries to get them into shortcakes. My ant said there ought to be a rule against lying on Sunday morning. My grandfather said he thought so too, but he said one of the best berries he ever ate was the white blackberries they have up in Washington, and Oregon, and my ant said that must have been before prohibition went into effect. Then I got washed by my ant so hard that if I had been a blackberry when she started I would have been a white blackberry when she got done.

When we got the cows out and got back to Sunday school it was too early for Sunday school but the super's new car was out in front and Feeble hollered to let him follow the leader, so she was the leader and she ran and hopped on the running board and ran up the front mudguard and hopped onto the radiator and clumb up on the roof and ran across it and jumped off the back end, and all of us saw our dogs after her, so when the super came to the door we were going up and over like a procession and he hollered like someone had stabbed him. He certainly felt bad and got out his pocket handkerchief and went to snubbing his eyes. We were only passing.

Today was Monday and the beginning of vacation. When we got over to the vacant lot where the cows eat grass and wait for us to drive them to the pasture we got

YOUR DOLLAR BUYS MORE AT A KROGER STORE

"Just now. I want this lady to go to sleep."

"You won't have to wait for that," I said truthfully, for the comfort of my own bed was already smoothing out the frayed ends of my nerves, and I did indeed feel drowsy. "But first, I want to tell you —"

"When you wake up," Katherine said relentlessly, and Lillian nodded a vigorous assent as she opened the door leading to the room in which Mary and Marion were occupying for the Summer.

"Safe as a church?"

"The girls will be gone for the day, and this will give us good breeze through here, that is past."

"Yes, indeed," Katherine answered was promptly. "But we must flag the girls if they get home before she wakes up. Now, then, Madge!" She "fixed me with a glittering eye." "No one is coming near you, no one is going to wake any noise. I'm going to take care of this Prisoner. Faith, and the rest of the grown-up will concentrate upon Roderick and Juniper. Everything is as right as a trivet and as safe as a church—I know I'm quoting my similes correctly—and I want you to sleep all night—and all night, too, for that matter, at any rate until you wake up yourself. Here!" She put a tiny bell upon my pillow. "When you do wake up, ring that. I don't want you to stir, and this bed isn't all I have looked you over."

She went outside with Lillian, closing the door after her, and I drifted into slumber, too spent even to wonder whether Lillian had correctly guessed the identity of the sender of the letter to Lee Chow.

WALDO HONORS SOLDIER DEAD

Congressman G. E. Mouser is Speaker at Memorial Services.

More than 3,000 persons heard Congressman Grant E. Mouser deliver the principal address yesterday afternoon at the Waldo Memorial services in Waldo park.

Honoring the memory of soldiers whose lives were given in all of this country's wars, Mouser said that the sacrifices made by these men had taught the country that the day of wars is past, that the toll of war is too tragic. He called upon those present to help the United States become a peaceful Christian country.

The principal address followed a parade from the park to the cemetery where graves of veterans were decorated and where Lincoln's Gettysburg address was recited by Anna Mae Klingel. The parade included patriotic organizations and several bands.

After the parade had returned to the park, the memorial program was given. R. E. Copeland, superintendent of schools, was grand marshal. Mouser was grand speaker during the parade and program. The Future Farmers band, the Port Clinton American Legion drum corps, the male chorists of the First Baptist church and a mixed quartet of Marion. Religious services were in charge of Rev. H. P. Daugherty, Rev. W. F. Lahr, and Rev. S. C. Long, all of Waldo. Mrs. R. D. Osborn led singing by the assembly.
